Pilallis Elected Grand President of Daughters of Penelope
Philadelphia, PA Native

WASHINGTON (July 6, 2015)—Convention delegates of the Daughters of Penelope (DOP), a preeminent international women’s organization, elected Connie Pilallis, Boca Raton, FL., Grand President for the 2015-2016 administrative year. Elections were held July 4, 2015 at the 93rd Annual AHEPA Supreme Convention, San Francisco, CA.

“It is an honor and a great thrill to be elected Grand President,” said Pilallis, who is a member of Cassandra Chapter No. 372. “I look forward to working with the Grand Lodge and the membership to take our existing successful programs in education, philanthropy, and social services to greater levels to the benefit of the community.”

Pilallis, a member of the Daughters of Penelope for 25 years, has served all major positions at national, district, and chapter levels within the organization.

“The Daughters of Penelope provides invaluable opportunities for women to make significant contributions to their country and to their communities,” Pilallis said. “I am grateful for the opportunities the organization have provided me, and I want to ensure those opportunities are afforded to future generations of women for years to come.”

The newly-elected grand president was born and raised in Philadelphia, PA. She moved to Boca Raton, Florida in 1990 with her two children, Anthony and Stacie and is a proud Yiayia to Pierceson, Chase and Jalyn who live in Dallas, Texas.

On a professional level, Grand President Pilallis has been an executive handling negotiations, paperwork and all financial matters for both personal and business for a private property investor for almost 25 years.

On a personal level, Grand President Pilallis has served on the Broward County Professional Business Woman's Club (BPW), was a charter member of Zone International of Greater Deerfield Beach, Florida, and has chaired several committees at her church, Saint Mark Greek Orthodox Church. In addition, she was named Soroptimist International Woman of Distinction in Boca Raton, FL in 2012.
